Arts & Humanities, Competitive Activities, and Service, Civic, & Citizenship

Each of the next three sections contain one subsection to open, and two writing prompts.

ARTS & HUMANITIES COMPETITIVE ACTIVITIES SERVICE, CIVIC, & CITIZENSHIP

Subsections:

- For each section, you must click the “Enter Activities” button. This will open a pop-up tab that allows you to state any activities you have taken part in and how long you’ve taken part in them, related to Arts & Humanities, Competitive Activities, and Service, Civic, & Citizenship.

* Arts & Humanities Activities

Click the Enter Activities button below to indicate the number of years you have participated in Arts and Humanities related activities during your high school years.

 Enter Activities

- Each has a drop-down menu that should cover most activities.

- “Other Related Activities” can be used to address any activity you don’t see on the provided list.
- Please note that it is acceptable to list your activities in as many sections as are relevant for telling your story.
 - For example: activities such as Marching Band may be relevant in both Arts & Humanities and Competitive Activities, and it is acceptable to list it in both sections.
- Please note that there is an option for Not Applicable if there is not an Activity that applies to you.

Writing Prompts:

- The first prompt asks you to list awards and recognitions you have received during high school, in relation to the section you’re working on.
 - You have 250 words to describe them.
 - It’s recommended that you include notes on why or how these would be viewed as notable, as readers don’t always have knowledge of local awards.
- The second prompt asks you to describe what participating in the activities related to this section has meant to you, and how you’ve impacted others during your participation.
 - You have 250 words to discuss.
 - Focus on how you’ve positively impacted others through your thoughts, words, and actions.

Scholarship and Transcript

This section contains an upload and a writing prompt.

* Transcript

Upload a copy of your transcript as a .pdf file.

Transcript Upload

- Click the green “Upload” button to upload a copy of your high school transcript.
- The transcript must be in .PDF format, or it will not upload and save.
- The transcript can be an unofficial copy, as long as it is unaltered before upload, and has the signature of an appropriate school official on it certifying it to be accurate.
- The transcript must be legible and easy to review, even if it has protective devices (ex. watermarks).
- Any inaccurate, falsified, incomplete, or altered uploads may render your application ineligible.

Transcript Background Writing Prompt

* Transcript Background

- This prompt asks you to tell the story of your academic journey, and address ways you have experienced academic success that can't necessarily be seen by reviewing your transcript.
 - You have 250 words to discuss.
 - This is a great place to really tell the story of your journey through high school, and how you have prepared to take the next steps into post-secondary education. It is not necessary to have a "perfect" transcript (ex. a 4.0 on a 4.0 scale) to be eligible. This is the best section to describe any challenges, how you overcame them, and what you learned from them.

Work and Interests

This section has three writing prompts.

When preparing the application, use FULL NAMES NOT ACRONYMS (e.g., use Future Business Leaders of America, not FBLA)

Work Experiences: Describe each of the work experiences you have had, including where you have worked, how long you worked there, what your duties included, and any leadership experiences you had.

Hobbies, Outside Interests, and Special Talents: Describe your hobbies, your areas of interest (if not already covered in a previous section of the application), and talents you have, including any leadership experiences you have had related to these activities.

Describe what you have learned from your work experiences, hobbies, outside interests and special talents. Describe what values these skills and experiences have to you and others.

- The prompts ask you first to describe your work experiences, then your outside hobbies, interests, and talents, and finally what you've learned and gained from each.
 - In each prompt, you have 250 words to discuss.
 - Focus on how you have positively impacted others through your thoughts, words, and actions in situations relevant to each topic.

Essay

This section has one writing prompt.

Student Essay Instructions

Write a personal narrative essay, not to exceed 500 words, that describes your goals in the following areas:

- Future educational pursuits and goals
- Personal life and goals
- Service to your community or society
- Future career goals
- Tell us something about you that we can't learn from anywhere else in the application

When preparing the application, use FULL NAMES NOT ACRONYMS (e.g., use Future Business Leaders of America, not FBLA)

* Student Essay

This section asks you to write a personal narrative essay, in no more than 500 words, that describes your goals in your personal life, educational pursuits, and future career.

Advice for this section:

- Compose, revise, and edit your responses in a separate document (ex. Google Docs, Microsoft Word, etc.) and then copy/paste the final version into your application.
- Proofread your work! Reading it out loud to yourself will help you locate errors.
- Write truthfully and tell your story with humility but take credit for your actions and the impact of your decisions as a student.
- If you are going to describe an activity that several people collaborated on, specifically address your role in that work, and how your work impacted the outcomes of the group's work together.
- Give real-life examples when you can.
- Consider protecting any specifically identifiable information about others when possible.
- Consider addressing how your context affects your decision and impact of your words and actions (including things like geographic location in the state, relative affluence of your school and community, and proximity/availability of opportunities and resources).
- Consider describing the challenges you have faced, or barriers you have overcome, in becoming the student you are today.
- Focus on subjects like innovation, leadership, impact/results, and equity through your words and actions.

- Consider how the letters of recommendation you request will support and deepen the evidence for the things that you share in your essay.
- Only three letters of recommendation are allowed. You will not be able to submit your application with more than three.

Recommendations

You will need to secure 3 letters of recommendation before you can submit your application as complete. You will use the application to invite your recommenders to complete a letter of recommendation form on your behalf. You will be able to see if they have been invited, have accepted and are drafting a letter, have completed their letter, or declined the invitation from within the tab. You will NOT be able to see what they have written or shared about you.

Invite Recommenders

Read the instructions carefully and be sure that your recommenders fit the criteria.

Complete all the required information. (Email, Role, and Status are not displayed on this screenshot)

Prefix	First Name	Last Name
		Save Invite

Once you have invited a person to recommend you, their status will change to “Invited.” they will receive an email with an invitation to accept or decline the invitation to submit a letter. Once they have responded, their status will update to whichever option they have chosen, either “Accepted” or “Declined.” Once their letter has been submitted, their recommender status will change to “Submitted.” If someone declines, or is generally unresponsive, you can also cancel the invite using the green button with an “X” on it in the Invite Recommender submenu, and then you will have the option to add another recommender in their place.

Advice for this section:

- Actively manage your invitations and completion of letters of recommendation!
 - An application will not be considered if it has fewer than the three required letters of recommendation.

- Check in often with the people you have asked to write you letters. If they did not receive the invitation, don't wait until the end of the application period to solve the issue.
- No extensions of time will be granted to applicants or recommenders. Please plan accordingly.
- The most common error made by applicants is entering incorrect email addresses for their recommenders. Please check addresses carefully.
- Consider being strategic in your invitations, and clear in what you hope a recommender can speak to about your activities, leadership, and the impact of your words and actions.
- Reach out to recommenders personally before you invite them through the SmartSimple platform, so they know to look out for this request. This also allows you to decide whether or not they might be a good reference for you.
- Encourage recommenders to give evidence and examples in their recommendations.
- Letters written in a language other than English will be shown to reviewers in the language in which they were written, to preserve as much of the authentic word selections and intent of the writing as possible. However, English translations will also be made available to reviewers. We will use commonly available services (ex. Google Translate) unless a recommender is able to provide a translation.
